R. E. BURDICK IS GROUP CHAIRMAN BANKERS of STATE

R. E. Burdick Named Group Chairman, Bankers of State Elected at Association Meeting

Group seven of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association held its annual meeting at Cambridge Springs last Wednesday, May 9th. It was a most interesting gathering, held at the Hotel Bartlett, with a business session in the afternoon, followed by a golf contest and in the evening a most excellent banquet was served. In point of attendance and good fellowship it was the best meeting Group Seven has ever held.

Group Seven is made up of bankers from nine counties: Cameron, Crawford, Elk, Forest, Mercer, Venango, McKean, Erie, and Warren.

The Association has given cups to boys or girls showing the most efficiency in cattle judging contests, in every county except Erie and Warren.

At the meeting R. E. Burdick, secretary and treasurer of the Hamlin Bank and Trust company, presented a resolution, offering branch banking as embodied in the bill pending at Harrisburg. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Later on Mr. Burdick was elected chairman of the organization, a position of credit and distinction.

At the dinner it was announced that in the golf contest the winners were: Roscoe Rider, a director of Spring National Bank of Cambridge Springs, and E. E. Drake, cashier of the First National Bank of Smethport. Mr. Rider won a fine silver cup, but will have to defend his score two more years to become permanent owner, while Mr. Drake won a dozen balls.

JUDGE BOUTON SAYS "NO MAN'S LAND" IS PLACE FOR TWO SLACKERS.

Out of 46 petitioners to become citizens of the United States, only seven failed to pass the requirements in answering questions put to them at Naturalization Court held Monday in Smethport. There were nine applicants from Kane who received their first papers and six from Ludlow. In the other end of the county seven applicants were refused: five because they wre not familiar with the constitution, and two because they were slackers. In the course of Judge Bouton's remarks he told the two latter that the people didn't want any such citizen's in America, not did he think that they wanted them in Italy, and that they ought to become residents of "No Man's Land."—Kane Republican.

CHAS. JONES CAR IN MIXUP NEAR KANE.

As Chas Jones, who is employed at the Interstate Glass Factory, and his family and two young girls, Catherine Curran and Clarissa Backus, were returning from Kane, Sunday afternoon on the state road in the former's new Ford touring car, another Ford car going in the opposite direction attempted to pass between a stationary car and the Jones car.

As the space was too narrow to allow this, the result was a collision in which Mr. Jones' youngest step daughter Ruth was thrown from the car, but not seriously injured, the other daughter, Virginia received slight bruises and the fender was torn from the car and the front smashed in.

Friends took the party into Kane, where they left the car to be repaired, and later brought them back to Smethport.

Happens About This Time of the Year

AUTO THROWS WHEEL, DRIVER DIES; ONE HURT.

Olean, May 11.—One man is dead and another is suffering severe injuries in the Mountain Clinic hospital here, the result of an automobile accident last night on the Portville-Olean road.

The dead man is Frederic Coon, about 25 years old. His skull was fractured. The injured man is Lewis Clark, 25 years old. His shoulder is fractured.

The pair had left their home in Cuba, N. Y., last night to drive to Olean. Just outside of Portville, Clark said today, a wheel came off their car and it careened into the ditch turning over as it did. Coon, who was driving, was pinned under the car.

Other motorists, passing the spot picked up both men and rushed them to this city—but Coon died on the road.

SLIGHT BLAZE IN STANDARD ELECTRIC CO.'S BASEMENT

Tuesday evening about 10:30 the fire alarm sounded, for fire had been discovered in the basement of the Standard Electric company's store on Main street. A lot of excelsior and packing boxes were piled near an open window, and these were burning when seen by passers by. The fire department arrived quickly on the scene and soon extinguished the fire before any serious damage was done. A hole was cut in the floor in the back of the store, so as to enable the fireman more easily to apply the water to the burning boxes, etc.

Mr. McCauley is at a loss to account for the origin of the fire, as he had taken his car from the back of the building only ten minutes before, and at that time there was no trace of fire. He had driven only a short distance when he heard the siren and returned to find his own building on fire.

CONOPUS CLUB STRONG FOR FIRE ENGINE HOUSE.

The subject of a suitable building to house the local fire fighting equipment was one of the important propositions considered at the meeting of the Conopus Club on Monday at the Grand Central. It was finally voted to appoint a committee of one in the person of Dr. Livermore, to meet with the council and discuss the matter in detail with a view to getting housing for the equipment as quickly as posible.

All the local merchants met in Quirk's hall on Wednesday evening, May 16th to discuss and consider matters of particular interest to them for the summer season.

The prize which was given by Mr. Lindsley was won by Judge J. W. Bouton. There were twenty-five members present at the meeting.

A GIVE-AWAY.

"You say the lady is stout—does she look very stout."

"No, but she had on the kind of dress that no woman would wear except to conceal stoutness."

PRATT-HUNT.

Ray Williard Hunt of Rixford, Pa., and Miss Bessie Viola Pratt, formerly of East Smethport, now of Rixford, Pa., were united in marriage, Friday, May 11th at 3:00 o'clock p. m. at St. Lukes Episcopal church, Rev. W. E. VanDyke officiating.

MRS GILLON RUN OVER BY FORD CAR SUNDAY.

In a distressing but unavoidable accident Sunday afternoon about 1:30 Mrs. Gillon who lives at the top of Bush hill, was run over by a Ford touring car driven by Clayton Crawford, who lives on the Holmes & Gilfillan farm.

Mrs. Gillon and three other women had started to cross the road in front of Tom Smith's farm house on the Port Allegany road to join two other women on the opposite side. The Crawford car had just passed another car and as it approached, Mrs. Gillon kept on crossing the road. Her daughter saw her danger and tried to jerk her back but in vain, she evidently was confused, and did not see the car, for she ran directly in front of it. She was thrown down, and her face, head, and hip received bad bruises, but there were no bones broken as the wheels did not pass over her. Drs. Burg Chadwick and Dr. Robert Hamilton have been caring for her, and she is improving rapidly.

There were five people in the Crawford car; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton son and niece, and Mrs. Howard Acre.

BRADFORD BOY GETS JAIL TERM AND $1,000 FINE

Besides Jail Term Harold Burgess Draws Thousand Dollar Fine—Drunken Auto Driver Gets Six Months.

Open court was conducted at Smethport yesterday, during which Judge J. W. Bouton handed a jolt to Harold Burgess of Bradford confessed bootlegger, who was arrested on School street, Bradford, Saturday, April 14. The judge said: "Eight months in the county jail and a fine of $1,000." After delivering sentence he gave Burgess a good stiff lecture on the evils of his ways.

Harold Burgess is the man who was caught with the goods in Bradford as he was about to deliver a couple of jugs of moonshine to a customer. When County Detective J. J. Allison suddenly confronted him, Burgess smashed the jugs on the sidewalk. Detective Allison was equal to the emergency, however. He procured a popbottle from a nearby soft drink establishment and by saturating his handkerchief in the pool of "moonshine" which had formed on the sidewalk, procured enough of the liquid evidence to take the heart out of Burgess, who later pleaded guilty in court to the charge of transporting liquor.

Henry Burgess, who was with his brother on the night that the arrest was made, was also arrested as a bootlegger. He told his story, which investigation proved was true, that he was not in the liquor-vending business nor ever had been. On the night in question he was with his brother in an automobile and was on his way to visit his sister, who was sick, when Harold stopped the car to deliver the liquor to a customer. Judge Bouton paroled Henry for one year and Burgess paid the costs in his case.

Finley Hill of Bradford, pleaded guilty to the charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and spend six months in the county jail.

Several divorce cases took up the attention of the court yesterday.—Star Record, May 12.

The evening was spent in playing bridge and prizes were won by Miss Miriam McKee, Miss Zanda Hepler and Miss Loraine Dale. Miss Boyersmith was presented with a beautiful gift and Mrs. Steele Crissman, of Johnstown, an out-of-town guest was also presented with a gift.

Later a delicious lunch was served with the color scheme carried out in gold and white. In the center of each table were crystal candle sticks containing gold candles and tied with gold tulle. MUSIC FESTIVAL FASCINATED ALL WHO ENJOYED IT

At the Opening of Music Week on Monday the Court Room was Jammed.

The large crowd which filled the court room Monday evening, testified to the interest Smethport feels in the observanee of music week. Every seat in the large room was filled, and many were unable to obtain seats. Enthusiastic applause greeted every number on the program, and the community singing was entered into with spirit.

An open air concert by the Smethport band preceded the indoor concert. Among the interesting numbers on the program were: several songs by the Travelers club Sextette, two numbers by the High School Band under the direction of Professor Stanley Bright, and several choruses by the High School girls, directed by Mrs. Stanley Bright. Mrs. E. E. Bouton and Mrs. Fred Hunziville sang two charming duets, and a number of young men scored a hit with a medley of popular airs.

It was an evening full of pleasure and inspiration, and those who gave their time and efforts to make it a success, deserve a great deal of credit.

GEORGE O. GARLICK DIED WEDNESDAY.

George O. Garlick of Kason, died Wednesday at noon at his home from pneumonia. He had only been ill a few days, but his family realized from the first that the attack was a serious one, and more than a man of his years could withstand.

Mr. Garlick was born June 8, 1839, and May 17, 1864, was married to Phoebe McKean. To them were born two daughters, Alberta and Eva, of Kasson, and one son, Bernard T. of Smethport who now survive him. His wife preceded him to the great beyond three years ago last November. To-day (Thursday) would have been their 59th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Garlick was one of the oldest settlers of Marvin creek and has spent practically all his life here. The year of his marriage he drove a team from Marvin creek to Minnesota, where he stayed one year, when he returned to Wilcox where he took up shoe making and remained there ten years. He then moved to his present home where he died. He was postmaster at Kasson for twenty six years, school director for six years, and poor master of Elk county for an extended period.

He was a man of sterling virtues, beloved in his home, and among his friends, whom he numbered by the score.

The funeral will be held Friday at two o'clock p. m. from the family residence at Kasson. Rev. W. E. VanDyke officiating. Interment will be in Kasson cemetery.

KANE GIRL WINS UNUSUAL HONOR.

Kane, May 10.—The friends of Miss Dorothy Davis, daughter of W. H. Davis of this city, will be delighted to know that an exceptional honor has come to her in the form of a scholastic fellowship, awarded by the Carnegie Endorsement for International Peace of Washington, D. C. It is the custom of this institution, which was founded in 1911 and endowed by the late Andrew Carnegie to the amount of $10,000,000, to select 10 persons annually for fellowship, five of whom must be teachers and five from recent graduates, to pursue further studies in colleges approved by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Some time in April Miss Davis, who is a student in the senior class at Smith college, decided to apply for a fellowship, and did so. She met all the requirements, academic and otherwise, and has just been awarded the honor.

BULLET TRAVELED TWO MILES, IS CLAIMED.

Not long ago while Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gregor who lives at Indian Run, were eating their supper, a bullet from a high power rifle came through the roof, hit a kerosene lamp bracket and landed on the table. Mrs. Gregor brought the bullet to the Press office. It is a steel jacketed bullet and is not badly mutilated, the chief marks being the grooves indicating the rifling of the gun barrel from which it was projected.

The claim is made that a man in West Johnsonburg was cleaning his rifle, and in order to go about it the quickest way, went outside and shot into the air. The claim is made this bullet traveled over Iaquery hill to Indian Run, a distance of some two miles and is the same bullet that Mrs. Gregor brought to the Press office.—Johnsonburg Press.

POLICE SEARCH FOR WIELDER OF RAZOR.

Olean May 15.—Police here are searching for the mysterious man who last night put two criss-cross cuts with a razor on the face of Joe Luczl proprietor of the White Palace cafe, State and Third streets. No motive is known for the act. Luczl says he knows of no enemies who would so mark him and he declares that he knows of no reason for the deed. The cuts extend from his eyes and cross just under his nose. The cuts were dressed at the hospital here.

The cutting occurred about 10 o'clock last night. There was a campfire in front of Luczl's place. A group of children and a dog were playing about it. Suddenly a man walked up to Luczl and cut him, but in the confusion of the playing, the man was practically unnoticed. The police have found several who say they saw the man but their descriptions are widely varied.

WILL RAISE BLACK FOXES NEAR WILCOX.

Kane, Pa., May 9.—George Schwaiger of Erie purchased the farm of Oscar Benson near Wilcox, which contains 220 acres the deal having been negotiated by the E. A. Strout Agency. Mr. Schwaiger will immediately commence to place the farm in condition for the raising of black foxes for the fur market and will enter the business on an extensive scale.

The raising of fur-bearing animals in this section of the state has been demonstrated to be a comparatively easy and highly profitable undertaking. Great care is taken in selecting the breeding stock and as there are now a number of fox farms in the country a system of exchange has been established so that close inbreeding can be avoided. The result is that the animals produced are usually nearly perfect specimens and the pelts thus secured are of great beauty and bring the highest prices. There are few pelts more valuable in the fur trade than that of the black fox.

It is understood that the farm purchased by Mr. Schwaiger is ideally located for this undertaking and that with the exception that the foxes are confined in strong wire enclosures with weather proof dens for their sons, the animals will live much as though still in a wild state, which will enhance the condition of the marketable fur.

Skunk and muskrat farms are also becoming more numerous as the ventures have in many instances proved extremely profitable, the ever-increasing demand for furs having nearly exhausted the natural channels of supply and made the pelts of these animals harder to secure as the years go by.

It is not at all unreasonable to suppose that "fur farms" will within a few years be a highly important activity in Kane and vicinity especially when the acreage of the federal park forest is fully accumulated and the work thoroughly organized. It will be possible for individuals to lease tracts from the government for this purpose as the aim of the government park is to use every acre for some useful purpose and as far as possible to devote the land to the uses for which it is best suited.

The establishment of wild animal farms has long since passed the "freak" stage. There are a number of them that have proved to be as solid and profitable propositions as any branch of the stock-raising industry.

HUGE OIL FIELD IN ALASKA MAY BE DISCOVERED.

Los Angeles, May 12.—A rival to California oil fields is seen in Alaska, according to Louis Margules, Seward hotel man.

"Two of the biggest companies in the United States, the Standard and Associated, have started drilling for oil just west of Seward, Margules said when here recently. "Indications are that there is a lake of oil under southeastern Alaska. Should a gusher be brought in in that territory there undoubtedly will be another rush to Alaska which will eclipse the old gold rush days.

"As it is, with completion of the new government railroad from Seward to Fairbanks southeastern Alaska is rapidly forging ahead. So great is the number of tourists during the summer months that another steamer will be added to the service this year.

"Within a year or two I expect to see Alaska become a summer playground. We soon will have to lay out golf links and install all the other modern attractions of a summer resort.

"With the railroads completed, Alaska will be able to compete with the Alps for entertainment, so far as scenery is concerned, and there is no country in the world that can offer so much as our famous peninsula, about which little is known to the residents of the States."

THE LURE

Adam was the first man, and a woman followed him.

Solomon was the wisest man, and yet he had 300 women.

Samson was the strongest man, and a woman cut his hair.

Cæsar was an emperor, but a woman ruined him.

And ever the lure shall draw them, and history shall be written again and over again, and always it shall be made in rings around woman.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

THESE CAME TO STAY AND BUILD, NOT TO DESTROY.

Another group of Scandinavians has discovered America, 400 Danish farmers coming in a body to settle in the land. They bring with them an average of $2,500 apiece in cash, a million dollars all told, for capital to start on in new homes. This does not look very big when compared to the average investment in Nebraska farms of $10,000 or more, but it holds immense potentialities.

They come with capital that can not be expressed in terms of money. It is the accumulated experience, the combined thrift and energy of the 400, who are accustomed to work, and who know how to do things. They may have to reform some of their ideas in order to adopt them to new soil and surroundings, but this will not be hard. As to the actual cash they have, it will be made to do duty far beyond the nations of American practice. These men are already well versed in the details of cooperative effort, and know how to work together in order to secure the best results with the least expenditure of time, energy and capital.

The dispatch did not mention where they intended to locate, but the state that gets them will be happy, for it will have received an addition to its productive citizenship that any state should be proud to have.—Omaha, (Neb.) Bee.

HARDING AND THE WORLD COURT.

President Harding continues to stand by his guns. The bombardment of the irreconcibles and the ambushed sniping by Henry Cabot Lodge—who ought to be in better business—have not prevailed against him. He believes that the United States ought to take part in the international court proceedings and he again went on record to this effect last week, in his message to the General Federation of Women's Clubs in session at Atlanta.

"Not since I have been President has there been in connection with any great question of public policy so impressive a demonstration of substantially unified opinion," he told the women. "It convinces me that as the discussion proceeds the evidence of this attitude will become so overwhelming that there will at least be no vicious obstacles to attain the ends sought."

He asserted that "the national heart, conscience and judgment are alike enlisted, and against these we may never fear that any opposition may prevail." And then he declared: "It is plainly the considered judgment of the country that if we are to unite with other nations in an epoch-making effort to establish adjunction of international differences, we should adhere to the court which is already in being."

The American conscience will be with the President. High time that we crawled out of the hole of indifference. High time that we used our influence for peace. High time that we should face the heartless and colablooded advocates of isolation who follow the banners of La Follette, Johnson, Borah, Lodge and company.

Every American who nourishes a spark of humanity will hail with renewed satisfaction this latest demonstration that the President is not a man who can be frightened from the great moral stand he has taken.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW AND THE LADIES.

Chauncey Depew, who is always adding to the gayety of life, has caused a stir among the ladies by throwing cold water upon the list of twelve names selected by the League of Women Voters as the greatest living women in America. It will be recalled that the twelve were: Jane Addams, philanthropist; Cecilia Beaux, painter; Anna Jump Cannon, astrologist; Anna Botsford Comstock, natural historian; Carrie Chapman Catt, politician and suffragist; Minnie Maddern Fiske, actress; Louise Homer, singer; Julia Ledron, leader in child welfare; Florence Rena Sabin, anatomist; M. Carey Thomas, educator; Martha Van Rensselaer, home economist, and Edith Wharton, author.

The doubting Depew is plain-spoken. He wonders if we have twelve really great women in the United States. "If we had," he says with a smile, "I wouldn't have to think so hard. Their names would come to me spontaneously. Women who get into the Hall of Fame would be universally known, and I don't know one-half of these women." The two great American women in his eyes continue to be Harriet Beecher Stowe and Julia Ward Howe, and they long since passed to the great beyond. Urged to select twelve now living, he halts at these eight: Nancy Astor, Mrs. Harding, Jane Addams, Mrs. Catt, Gertrude Atherton, Edith Wharton, Louise Homer and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney.

Probably the ladies will object to his list and probably none of us can agree on the twelve women immortals. It is a ticklish subject, but then Mr. Depew enters his objection and names his favorites with a disarming chuckle which may save him from the wrath of the sex.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"SKY PILOT" WANDERS AWAY FROM HOME; RETURNS

Rev. W. E. Brewer "Sky Pilot of the Alleganies" who has been at the county farm for some time, wandered away early Monday morning, and did not return until late in the afternoon. Mr. Taylor telephoned to many nearby points to determine his whereabouts. His feet were badly bruised as he had gone without his shoes, and he was in a deplorable condition after his long tramp.

The old preacher is mentally unbalanced, and has to be kept in solitary confinement as he is easily excited, and imagines he is going to be burned up.

County Supt. Taylor found that he had traveled many miles over the hills near the county farm. No doubt he thought he was on one of his old journeys to the men in the lumber camps.

His condition is such, that he will probably be removed in the near future to the State Hospital at Warren.

FRED RIPLEY IN AUTO SMASHUP NEAR ELDRED

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ripley of Olean formerly of Hazelhurst, were in a bad auto smashup Sunday on the Olean road about two miles beyond Eldred. The Ripleys in a Maxwell car were driving at a rapid rate of speed and in attempting to pass a large touring car driven by a man named Nichols from Turtle Point, crashed into it. The Ripley car turned over and Mrs. Ripley received a punctured lung. She was taken to a farm house nearby, and later removed to the Olean Clinic, where she is improving as fast as could be expected.

The Ripley car had the back wheels torn off and was badly smashed up. The other car was also badly damaged.

MIXUP OF CARS AND MOTOR CYCLE SUNDAY.

Sunday forenoon about 10:30 as W. H. Halpenny was driving his car down Main street, a man on a motorcycle coming up from Mechanic street, ran directly into his car on the Wright House crossing. Halpenny threw his car to the left to avoid him and hit Fred Greens car which was standing in front of E. T. Daly's residence, damaging the fender. Mr. and Mrs. Green were in the car, but were not thrown out, the only one injured was the motorcyclist who hurt his leg slightly.

TWENTY-SEVEN COUPLES TIRED OF MATRIMONY

In argument court at Smethport, much of the time last Friday was given over to the hearing of divorce cases, there being at least 27 couples who wished to sever their nuptial contract for this reason and that. A number of Bradford attorneys were kept very busy looking after the interests of their clients, whom they represented Wilson & Fitzgibbon alone had 12 divorce cases; while others were handled by Melvin & Melvin, Brown Schoonmaker & Nash, W. E. Burdick and Lester H. Simons.

Altogether, there were 20 Bradford couples applying for divorce, to be freed from irksome bonds. Besides those from Bradford, there were at least seven cases from other parts of the county.

No decisions were handed down by the judge.—Bradford Record, May 12.

HENRY FORD TO ESTABLISH BIG CHAIN OF BANKS.

New York, May 12.—Henry Ford the Detroit manufacturer, is planning to establish a nation-wide chain of banks, according to reports in the financial district today. Some financiers see in the Ford installment plan, by which an automobile may be purchased for $5 a week, the first step in the project.

It is reported to be Ford's intention to become independent of existing money markets, following his turndown by Wall street in 1920.

The new Ford banks, according to the report, would be opened in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis and some of the western cities. If successful, banks would be opened in other smaller cities.—Bradford Record, May 12.

NO LICENSE GIVEN YET TO BRADFORD BREWERY.

No near-beer will be manufactured by the Bradford Brewery for at least one month more.

That is the fact cold of Judge Joseph W. Bouton who sitting in common pleas court, postponed the common pleas court Thursday, postponed the date for hearing of the application of the Bradford amber water manufacturing plant for a license until next month.

What the decision of the court will be on the application is a matter of much speculation in court circles. It is reported that pressure is being brought to bear by dry interests in the county for a refusal of the license.

SMETHPORT MEN BUY OIL LEASE SOUTH OF BRADFORD

A large oil deal has just been consumated locally, in which Earl Deffler sold his lease, located at South Bradford, to the Gallup Oil company, a Smethport company. This valuable property contains 14 producing wells, and as it consists of about 60 acres, it affords ample opportunity for further development, which the Gallup company plans to carry out.

The lease is located just back of the South Bradford school house and has been considered for some time a very attractive piece of property, so far as oil is concerned. The consideration is private, but a goodly sum is involved.

The Gallup Oil company includes W. H. Gallup, F. J. Holmes and Al Hyatt of Smethport; Al Wilber, of Bolivar; Grant Holmes, Eldred, and C. L. Clark, Bradford.—Bradford Star, May 11.

SIX THOUSAND CARLOADS OF TELEPHONE MATERIAL WILL BE ADDED TO THE BELL SYSTEM IN PENNSYLVANIA THIS YEAR

THIS material is required to care for the twenty-five million dollar construction program which is now under way.

To accomplish the work, three cars loaded with telephone equipment must leave the factories for every hour of working time throughout the year.

This is the most tremendous telephone construction program ever undertaken in this state.

During the past three years we have installed more equipment than in any six previous years.

The 1923 program is a continuation of our efforts to furnish a comprehensive telephone service in Pennsylvania.

DAIRY POINTS

IMPROVE CAPACITY OF COWS

Testing Associations Aid Dairyman in Culling Out Undesirable Animals in Herd.

The chief agencies for improving the capacity of dairy cows are the cow testing association and the sire for advanced registry, according to state dairy extension specialists. The former aids the farmer-dairyman to size up his herd, cull out the undesirable animals and get his dairy upon a business basis. The testing of pure-bred cows for advanced registry sorts out the most desirable cows and bulls for the improvement of the breed, and furnishes large numbers of bulls that are available to farmer-dairymen for mating with cows selected through the use of the cow testing association.

In the Holstein-Friesian Register, the largest of all the breeds, 30,000 cows and 9,000 bulls have been admitted. Among these animals are found cows which have produced over 1,000 pounds butterfat in one year. The highest yearly record for butter is held by May Walker Ollie Homestead who produced 1,523.2 pounds. The cow holding the world's milk record is Segis Pieterje Prospect, which in one year produced 3,972 gallons, or an average of over 51 quarts a day.

SEE DAIRY PROFITS IN 1923

Good Year Is Seen Ahead by Iowa Expert, but Much Depends on Individual Farmer.

From all indications, farmers who milk cows in 1923 have a good year ahead, says C. H. Finley, an Iowa dairy expert. However, profits will depend much upon the individual farmer.

The extent to which it will be possible to cash in on the good year ahead will depend largely upon ten things, which are as follows:

1. Get a field of alfalfa or clover large enough to supply the herd.
2. Have ample silage.
3. Feed rations suited to the cows' needs.
4. Weed out the unprofitable cows.
5. Weigh the milk each day.
6. Feed according to production.
7. Make your barn more sanitary and comfortable.
8. Supply the best quality of product to the consumer and the creamery possible.
9. Put your herd on a business basis by being in a cow testing association.
10. Buy a sire from good producing purebred ancestry.

NEW ATLANTIC CABLE IS TO BE LAID BY AUGUST.

New York, May 12.—Clarence H. Mackey, president of the Postal-Telegraph Commercial Cable system, has announced that his companies have completed contracts for the laying of a new cable in the Atlantic ocean which will operate directly between New York and London. The new cable, which will be the first to be laid in the Atlantic between America and Europe since 1916, is now being manufactured by the Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Company and Siemens Brothers and will be laid by August 1.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES.

New York, May 10.—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, concluding business sessions of its annual convention, late today endorsed entry of this country into the world court; advocated increase in tax by two per cent the manufacturing quotas and urged state regulation of public utilities rather than local regulation.

Resolutions also were adopted recommending the calling of a general economic conference of the nations of the world to adjust peace and economic problems; opposing government operation or ownership of merchant marine; advocating legislation to govern flight of aircraft and air ways to stimulate commercial aviation; the establishment of a court of tax appeals; government reclamation of waste lands; steps to prevent national loss by adequate flood control and reiterating its adherence to the open shop policy.

Prior to the adoption of the resolutions the convention heard an address by M. Robert Mason of Paris director general of the Credit Lyonnaise, who said the mission of the Franco-Belgian armies in the Ruhr was that of a sheriff to collect debts. He declared that France's military expenditures for 1923 were less than those of 1913 and that the per capita tax on citizens was equivalent to $34 as compared with $27 in America. The French government, he said, was taking steps to wipe out its indebtedness in eleven years by "steady, slow and prudent deflation."—Bradford Era.

SERVING A NATION

ANTICIPATING this year the greatest volume of freight traffic in their history the railroads of America have adopted a concerted policy and intensive working program to enable them to meet the growing transportation needs of the country.

In full realization of the necessity for the greatest improvement and expansion possible of the country's transportation facilities to meet the growing demands of commerce, the railroads have authorized, since January 1, 1922, for cars, locomotives, trackage and other facilities, the expenditure of $1,510,000,000, of which $410,000,000 actually was expended during 1922.

The railroads are raising this enormous amount of additional capital largely through borrowed money on the abiding faith in the fairness of the American people, and a reliance on the continuance of the policy announced in the Transportation Act of 1920, as a measure of reasonable protection to investment in railroad property.

From January 1, 1922 to March 15, 1923, the railroads ordered 223,616 new freight cars. Of these, 117,230 have been delivered and are in service. The railroads during that time also purchased 1,219 new locomotives. Of that number 2,Purchase directly been placed in service.

The Pennsylvania Railroad System looks forward [illegible] increase in 1923 of the largest volume of traffic in its history and pledges its best efforts to that end. It carries annually seventeen per cent. of the total passenger traffic and twelve per cent. of the total freight traffic of America.

Next Saturday the McKean county Interscholastics will be held. Smethport high is the present class B champion of the county and to hold that championship they have to defeat Port, Ludlow, Eldred, Mt. Jewett and Hazelhurst.

Gum-Dipped Cords
Gaining New Fame for Service
194% Sales Increase in Last Six Months Shows Trend Toward Firestone

The public has emphatically spoken. The popular preference in all territories is unmistakably the Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

A standard of service has been set by these famous tires without parallel in the past. It has brought a sales increase of 194% for the past six months over the same period of a year ago—the greatest gain in all Firestone history.

The Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord is the mighty achievement which has enabled Firestone to break the tremendous record of past Firestone success.

The tire buying public has been aroused to the results in economical mileage of the Firestone process of double gum-dipping. The buying-swing toward Firestone shows how it has advanced the public's standard of tire value.

Ask owners about Firestone performance on their cars. Note the big taxicab fleets Firestone-equipped. Watch the new cars you see—just from the factories; Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords are seen everywhere in fast increasing numbers.

Get the maximum extra mileage that only the Firestone name assures you. Only by insisting on this name can you be sure of getting the genuine gum-dipped construction.

BRADFORD MAN APPOINTED ON FARM LOAN BOARD.

Attorney Evan J. Jones of No. 70 Pleasant street, former member of Congress from this district, has been appointed by President Harding to fill the vacancy on the Farm Loan Board. He was recommended for the appointment by Senator Pepper.

Mr. Jones is an old resident of Bradford and has many friends in the city. He is senior partner of the law firm of Jones and Wick and has been a member of the McKean County Bar Association for many years. Besides his law practice, he is actively interested in industrial enterprise. His knowledge of industrial and financial conditions especially fit him for the post to which he has been appointed.—Bradford Era.

Worthy of Her Great Brother.

Betty Washington Lewis is pictured as more than a sister to the Father of his country. She was "consolor, comforter, advisor and friend," according to Virginia authority. Her husband, Col. Fielding Lewis, a man of means and position socially and politically, gave his sword to his country, not alone, but sacrificed his fortune to supply the needs of soldiers.

Within the beautiful walls of Kenmore, some of the decorations of which Washington is said to have planned for his sister, were frequently assembled the military and civic personages of the period.

WISDOM FROM ANCIENT SAGE

Egyptian Knew Whereof He Spoke, and His Words Are Worth Keeping in Remembrance Today.

Long centuries before Tut-Ankh-Amen ruled as Pharaoh in the land of the Nile, a certain Ptah Hotep served his king, Itoso, in the capacity of vizier. Very little is known about this ancient statesman-philosopher beyond the fact that, like all fond parents since the world began, he exercised his paternal prerogative by giving unsought advice to his son.

Dr. James Walsh of Fordham university has called attention to the vizier's letters to his boy, written apparently about 5,800 years ago, and preserved in what is claimed by some to be the oldest book in the world. The burden of one epistle seems to have been not unlike the oft-quoted advice of Shakespeare's Polonius of a much later day—"Beware of entrance to a quarrel." Other words of Hotep were: "Don't argue with your superiors; it does not do any good. Don't argue with your equals; make a plain statement and let it go at that. Don't argue with your inferiors; let them talk and they will make fools of themselves."

WAR IN IRREGULAR MANNER

Guerrillas Have Never Been Recognized as Part of the Armed Forces in a Controversy.

The term guerrilla is applied to armed bands who, on the occasion of foreign invasion or civil war, carry on an irregular warfare on their own account. This class of fighters belongs particularly to Spain, where from 1808 to 1814 they were systematically organized against the French, whose operations they very seriously embarrassed. The country itself also suffered from them. Many of them, particularly Mina's band, joined Wellington, and after having undergone a course of discipline, rendered signal service as regular troops. On the conclusion of peace large numbers were organized into robber bands. In most of the civil wars of Spain since 1820, guerrilla warfare, especially in the Basque provinces, played a prominent part. In the Civil war of the United States, bands of guerrillas committed depredations on both Federals and Confederates.

AMERICAN MEN OF LETTERS

Writers of Note Have Not Been Accorded Proper Recognition by Acknowledged English Authority.

When John Morley started the "English Men of Letters" series in 1878 he did not include an American author excepting Hawthorne; not even Emerson, for whom he was later to express his high regard. And it is characteristic of the difference between the American point of view and the British that all the volumes of the "English Men of Letters" series were issued in the United States, while only two or three of the corresponding "American Men of Letters" series were issued in Great Britain.

We are interested in their authors and they are not interested in ours, or at least such interest as they may have in ours is sporadic and intermittent, accidental and uncertain. I know only one British history of the literature of the English language which pays any attention to the American contributors to that literature. This sole exception is the brilliant book by Andrew Lang; and I have reason to believe that he gave adequate consideration to Irving and Cooper, Emerson and Hawthorne, Longfellow and Lowell, Holmes and Poe, only because I urged him to do so.—From "Some Trans-Atlantic Perspectives," Brander Matthews.

EMBODY TRUTH IN SPEECH

Spaniards Have Aphorisms Which Are in Many Respects the Supreme Words of Wisdom.

The traveler in Spain frequently comes across some very quaint but wise expressions and sayings, for many of which we have no equivalent in our own language.

For instance, there is the popular domestic saying in Spain that "a smoky house, a leaky roof and a scolding wife drive a man from home."

A Spaniard often sums up another's character with the remark that "he is like a collier's sack, bad outside, worse inside." They are particularly fond of sayings relating to love and money matters, as the following expressions show: "Love, grief and money cannot be concealed," and "he who tries to get rich in a year will hang in six months." This latter proverb is evidently meant as a kindly warning to business men.

Not being particularly silent themselves, the Spaniards like using the expression, "Beware of silent men and dogs that don't bark." Yet they have another expression which seems directly to contradict this, for it says, "speak little and well and you will be considered as some one."

Finally one might quote the old Spanish recipe for true happiness: "Enjoy your little, while the fool seeks more."

Little Known Game Bird.

The francolin is a game bird related to the partridge. There are 40 or more species, most of which are found in Africa. The coloration of all species is rich and varied, and the plumage of both sexes is practically alike. Francolins travel in family parties, rather than in convoys, and fly swiftly and heavily. They feed in the morning and at evening, at which time they utter loud and shrill cries. Their food consists of insects, berries, seeds and bulbs. Their nests are well concealed and resemble those of partridges.

Six to fourteen eggs are laid in the fall and spring. The eggs are brown and buff in color, with small, dark spots. The francolin once abounded in southern Europe, but is now extinct there.

Got His Berries Easily.

Two neighbor girls and I went blackberrying. It was a very warm day and we worked hard, getting our pails full. The berries were fine, so we carefully hid our picked berries under the bushes and filled other pails. When we came to get our first berries we found that someone had emptied our pails and taken our berries—who, we did not know. A few months later the man who had stolen them told the girls' brother how he had found blackberries hidden under the bushes in a certain grove and that he thought it such an easy way to get berries that he didn't stop to pick any others.—Chicago Journal.

Avoid Habit of Worrying.

Worry is a form of friction. The task of the expert in life is to run his machine with the maximum of activity and the minimum of friction. If he stops or slows the machine, because he cannot otherwise deal with the friction, then life has beaten him. The general human tendency is to stop friction by partially stopping the machine—especially after what is loosely called "success" has been attained. Real success in life is the full smooth-running exploitation of the whole machine with daily satisfaction to the mechanic. And nothing else is real success in life.—Arnold Bennett.

Their Good Quality.

A new governor was about to be sworn in and had invited some friends from his home town to witness the ceremony. They were plain people he had known in his youth. A pert miss who knew the successful candidate intimated that his friends were not very smart looking.

"They are a few old friends," responded the governor. "Just a few tried and true old friends. They may not wear so much paint, but they'll wash."

KEATING SUMMIT MAN IS KILLED ON RAIL ROAD.

William H. Rinehuls, a Keating Summit man, 37 years of age, was killed while at work for the N. Y. C. Railroad Company at Niagara, Sunday. The body was brought to his former home Tuesday and the funeral held this morning at ten o'clock. Deceased is survived by his widow and one daughter, aged 15 years, who were at Emporium where the latter attended school. Mr. Rinehuls had only very recently accepted this employment and the sympathy of the community in which they reside goes out to the sorrowing family.—Potter Enterprise.

GOVERNOR SIGNS BILL TO PROVIDE OLD AGE PENSION.

Harrisburg, May 10.—Governor Pinchot addressing a small crowd assembled to see him sign the Vare old age pension bill Thursday, said he was glad to sign the bill for two reasons, first, "that under it old couples who have lived the major portion of their lives together need not be separated as is the case now when they are sent to our institutions," and second, "that old men and women who, although poor, still have families who can do something for them, need not be taken away from these families."

Senator Vare, Philadelphia, sponsor of the measure, in congratulating the governor on signing the bill said, "This act will stand out as one of the most progressive and most advanced acts that have been placed upon the statute books during your term of office."

The pension is not to exceed a dollar a day and if the applicant has any income whatever it is to be counted in as part of the dollar. Pensions will be granted to persons of seventy years of age or more and to persons who have been citizens of the United States fifteen years or more, which is the length of residence in this State required also. There are provisions exempting inmates, beggars and those who have children or other persons responsible under the law for their upkeep.—Bradford Era, May 13.
